

LANGUAGE AND CULTURAL FACILITATORS

Peace Corps Lesotho is seeking to recruit Language and Cultural Facilitators (LCF) on a part-time basis during pre-service and in-service trainings of Peace Corps Volunteers. The incumbents facilitate Volunteers' acquisition of language, culture and technical skills, to successfully live and work in Lesotho. Working under the guidance of the Peace Corps Language, Culture and Homestay Coordinator, the LCF designs, implements, monitors and evaluates integrated language, cross-cultural and technical training during the ten week training period. While doing so, the LCF is expected to participate in all training components and assist with homestay coordination in a community-based training setting. Below are the mandatory requirements for the position. Please do not apply for this position if you do not meet the mandatory requirements. Additionally, an error-free, compelling cover letter MUST accompany your CV before you will be considered.

Minimum qualifications

Qualifying candidates must have one of the following:

- Diploma in African Languages or Adult Education, with 5 years' experience in Primary or High school teaching
- Degree in African Languages or Adult Education, with 3 years' experience in Primary or High school teaching
- Experience in training Peace Corps Volunteers in Language and Culture will be an added advantage

Additional requirements:

- Must be fluent in both written and spoken English and Sesotho
- Should be willing to work long hours during training events, while maintaining a positive and constructive attitude
- Must be willing to live in a training village outside of Maseru, under simple conditions, with no running water or electricity for up to 10 weeks
- Must be a model of professionalism
- Proven ability to work as a member of a team

For a copy of the job description please email smakhaola@peacecorps.gov and request the LCF statement of work.

Please submit a cover letter and your Curriculum Vitae to the Human Resource Specialist, US Peace Corps - 5 Bowker Road, PO Box 554, Maseru; or by e-mail to jobs@ls.peacecorps.gov by 12:00 noon, Friday, February 19, 2016. Peace Corps will respond only to shortlisted candidates.

The United States Peace Corps, an agency of the US government, is the largest non-Basotho development volunteer organization in Lesotho with over 80 Peace Corps Volunteers assigned across all 10 districts as teachers, health educators, and co-facilitators of community development. We have been operating in Lesotho for almost 50 years, in collaboration with Basotho, and in support of Lesotho's development goals.
